2.3.2 – Students mentoring system available in the institution? Give details. (maximum 500 words)

The students are continuously evaluated throughout the year in terms of their academic, professional and other necessary skills. Through this the faculty gets an idea about students' strengths and weaknesses. This helps faculty devise a plan to strengthen students' talents and help them overcome their weaknesses. This is done throughout the year by mentoring students in the groups. At the start of the year students are put in the mentoring groups and allotted their mentor. Mentoring is carried out with an aim to achieve all round development of students by providing them necessary support and guidance. At STIE the mentoring groups are changed per semester so that students get guidance from all teachers. Students' problems are addressed by faculty members. But in case of major challenges, group of teachers along with the principal are involved to solve the difficulties. Apart from one to one session the constructivist feedback given after each and every activity also acts as one of the effective way in mentoring students. Not only faculty but also students are trained to mentor their peers. For peer mentoring senior students are given responsibility to help their juniors in academic sphere. This creates strong bonding between two batches. Few outstanding students of the same batch are also included as peer mentors. This helps weak and extremely shy students open up with respect to their problems and difficulties. Thus peer mentoring helps in catering to the needs of all.

Collaborators MedWiz Healthcare Communications and Titan EyePlus collaborate with the institution by providing the finances St. Teresa's Institute of Education celebrates Children's Day with a difference! It hosts a platform for schools across Mumbai to showcase practices they customize to cater to the specific needs of their student population or even to a single child who needs special nurturing. Transactors of school education come together to deliberate on innovations in their institutions. It gives schools a chance to document what they do differently outside the prescriptions of the Board. The podium enables schools to showcase how each school customizes education to meet social relevance and real need. Custodians of education justify how the value-addition they incorporate renders essence to the education they impart. Finally, the event tries to bust the myth that novel initiatives need heavy funds. It is this philosophy that bridges schools of different types to participate in healthy deliberations. This in turn is meant to empower the youth of today with holistic growth, creating a community that is aware and prejudice-free, reflecting global citizenship.

Digital Literacy Workshop We at STIE hosted a Digital Literacy Workshop for women in collaboration with the Maharashtra State Commission for Women. The faculty incharge was given the entire responsibility to conduct the Workshop. It was a combined effort of all the members and they did their best. The Commission's Mandate can be divided under four heads:

- To safeguard rights of women granted by the Constitution and Laws.
- To study problems faced by women in the current day and make recommendations to eradicate these problems.
- To evaluate the status of Indian women from time to time.
- To fund and fight cases related to women's rights violation.

The participants were helped to log on to the wifi and they were given hands on experience to the various apps such as maps, camera, google search and the like. They were given an insight to the government schemes like the Sukhanya Samridhi Yojana that was introduced to help women. Examination and Evaluation

The institution tries to follow the Year Plan program in order to conduct the summative evaluations. However, students partake in the actual arrangement of dates. They brainstorm and draw up a time table within the time line given to them. They set gaps between subjects based on the felt difficulty level. 7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

1. Title of the Practice (A): The RIPPLE MODEL of Social Awareness 2. Objectives of the Practice: ? To sensitise student-teachers to their role in Environmental Stewardship ? To transform the student fraternity in schools and colleges into agents of change ? To add a creative dimension to the existing eco-friendly practices ? To alert society to the threat of environmental degradation ? To actively engage and involve every member of community to walk the green talk ? To provide a forum for networking between various stakeholders and usher in a Green Evolution 3. The Context: The threats facing humanity in terms of environmental degradation are insurmountable. If we have to avert this impending calamity, each of us has to make an informed choice to make a difference. What better way than to sensitize, empower and involve the student fraternity by transforming them into agents of change. This feat requires that the existing myopic attitudes and lackadaisical mindsets be phased out and steadily replaced by a positive outlook, a committed approach, a focused plan and a phenomenal end to the existing polluting practices in order to usher in a Green Evolution. The significance of the RIPPLE model lies in that the positive influence of an event can be experienced far beyond its immediate location. 4. The Practice: The syntax of the RIPPLE model has been described below using the acronym RIPPLE: ? Phase 1: Research for a Relevant theme This is the primary and most important phase of the model as it determines the extent and reach of the project in question. ? Phase 2: Inform and Involve all the stakeholders It comprised of identifying a core team of committed representatives, explaining the logical basis of the proposed project, orienting the core team to the specific objectives and expected outcomes of the activity in question and networking with the other stakeholders through the project. ? Phase 3: Plan the Particulars The various dimensions of planning can be summarized through the five 'W's' what, who, when, where and why. ? Phase 4: Phase the Plan of action

- 1: The trainees and core-team were first oriented to the Tetra Pak collection process by RUR.
- 2: In the following week trainees served as Green Champions to orient the school students and teachers to the Tetra Pak collection drive.
- 3: The trainees oriented their neighbourhoods to the cut-clean-flatten process.
- 4: The Tetra Paks from the 4 participating institutions and neighbourhoods were collected by trainees weekly, recycled, counted and submitted to RUR.
- 5: The 10,555 cartons collected in the first year were exchanged for a garden bench and Tetra Pak collection bin which were installed on the campus. Feedback was then gathered from all the stakeholders and analysed.

? Phase 5: Learn and Lead by example It is imperative that every participating member irrespective of rank and title engages in the activity sincerely. It takes a Green Team to launch a Green Dream. ? Phase 6: Evaluate whether the objectives have been achieved and Extend the reach for the following year Feedback from the stakeholders was obtained to serve the purpose of inviting constructive criticism and invaluable suggestions for improvement which can overcome the odds encountered. The project can then be extended to a bigger group and wider location the next time it is launched so as to widen its reach. 5. Evidence of Success ? Propagating Environmental values: The model helped each student-teacher to function as a ripple and be instrumental in spreading environmental consciousness by sensitizing society to its role in environmental stewardship.

? Developing organizational and leadership skills: In serving as Green Champions the student-teachers mastered the skills of setting objectives, scheduling tasks, monitoring progress, making decisions, implementing constructive suggestions, time management and networking effectively and efficiently. ? Empowering students to be agents of change: The model proved that education is not only restricted to the classroom but rather should help students to heed the needs of the world they live in by putting into practice the education they receive. ? Creating waves of awareness regarding a worthy cause: A total of 10,555 used Tetra Pak cartons collected in the 1st year of the project increasing to an all-time high of 15,471 cartons in the 2nd year, earning the Institution the title of the Highest Performing Spoke in Mumbai for the year 2020. 6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required The practical problems encountered were: ? Some of the Tetra Paks collected were soiled and hence led to foul odours. ? Orienting and monitoring the younger students of the primary section to get familiar with the processing of the cartons was difficult. ? Coordinating the timely pickup of the collected Tetra Pak cartons was tedious and delayed. Resources required: ? Tetra Pak collection bin ? Pick up facility and transportation ? Dedicated faculty and student-teachers to engage in the cut-clean-flatten process. ? Storage space for storing the bundles of cleaned Tetra Paks. 1. Title of the Practice (B): Institution with Distinctive Status Award 2. Objectives of the Practice: ? To instill accountability for novel teaching-learning transactions initiated and sustained at school level ? To document and validate practices that are distinctive ? To initiate research-mindedness in the teaching community through paper reading and publication ? To create a repository of best practices at school level ? To review and certify the distinctive practices ? To raise quality standards at school level ? To share and disseminate success stories 3. The Context: St. Teresa's Institute of Education celebrates Children's Day with a difference! For this purpose, it hosts a platform for schools across Mumbai to showcase practices that they customize to cater to the specific needs of their student population or even to a single child who needs special nurturing. Transactors of school education come together to deliberate on innovations in their institutions. It gives schools a chance to document what they do differently outside the prescriptions of the Board. The podium enables schools to support their success stories with evidence, thus showcasing how each school customizes education to meet social relevance and real need. Custodians of education justify how the value-addition they incorporate renders essence to the education they impart. In other words, makes them distinctive! The event is also meant to create networking among schools, taking education to a level where public-private partnership becomes symbiotic. Finally, the event tries to bust the myth that novel initiatives need heavy funds. It is this philosophy that bridges schools of different types to participate in healthy deliberations. This in turn is meant to empower the youth of today with holistic growth, creating a community that is aware and prejudice-free, reflecting global citizenship.

4. The Practice:

- Invitation The event date is arrived at in consultation with networking schools. An aesthetic brochure and invitation are prepared to match the theme. This is then hand-delivered by our teacher-trainees to the schools. Email, social media, and telephone calls are used to widen the scope of awareness.
- Help Desk A help desk of responsible staff members is set up to answer queries.
- Evaluators / Judges Educators who have served in pivotal roles in higher education and who have held important portfolios with NAAC are invited to act as evaluators/judges. They peer review the submitted papers and shortlist ten best papers for presentation.
- Presentation and Publication Authors of the selected papers make a podium presentation of these at the event, in the presence of principals, teachers from various schools, and teacher-trainees. All submitted papers are published by the College Research Cell Pratiti as Proceedings, with an ISBN.
- Collaborators MedWiz Healthcare Communications and Titan EyePlus collaborate with the institution by providing the finances.

5. Evidence of Success:

- Awareness of the objectives and goals of this event has increased with each year.
- The number of participating schools and delegates has increased over three years.
- Participants have recognized this forum as one that promotes and rewards quality practices and encourages replicating these practices in other schools when planning for the future.
- Since, unlike in higher education, schools do not have an accrediting body, participants feel that this forum serves as a neutral body for documentation, appraisal, and validation.

6. Problems Encountered and Resources Required:

Problems Encountered:

- Fixing a date that suits the convenience of participating schools, since the event is positioned around Children's Day and schools have their own celebrations.
- Identifying and obtaining consent from qualified evaluators/judges, and meeting timelines with them, since they have their own duties and responsibilities elsewhere.
- Overcoming reluctance among schools to participate, because of a hidden apprehension that good practices can come only from international Boards with sound funding.

Resources required:

- Our institution has the infrastructure needed to host such events, including a hall with necessary electronic gadgets.
- Banners are refurbished and reused each year.
- Finances are needed for token remuneration and travel allowance, and for publication of brochures, invites, and proceedings.
- Maximum use is made of electronic media to minimize expenditure.

7.3 – Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 – Provide the details of the performance of the institution in one area distinctive to its vision, priority and thrust in not more than 500 words which gives it a distinguished green edge over the other colleges in Mumbai.

S.T.I.E. has always been committed to the goal of 'Environmental Stewardship'

All-Mumbai Inter-school/Inter-college Environment festival-Planit-E: The college took pride in hosting the All Mumbai Interschool / Intercollegiate Environment festival Planit-E on 16 / 17 Nov 2019 for the fourth time in succession. The title implies that each individual participating in the festival is invited to plan the planet of their dreams. The festival saw an overwhelming participation of around 80 educational institutions across the Metropolitan giving it the status of a Mini Earth Summit! The fest promotes healthy liaising of academicians, media personnel, NGOs, alumni, environmentalists and corporate organizations paving the way for inter-disciplinary learning and amalgamation of ideas and opinions. From the eco-friendly décor to the prizes given away it's a green fest all the way! The highlight of the festival is the social element added every year beginning with the DAAN Utsav, which includes a charity drive by the teacher-trainees to reach out to the less fortunate children across Mumbai. Now it doesn't just stop right there because this festival encompasses a gamut of competitions on diverse environmental themes which are creatively thought out all with a Green Tinge. The basic ideology behind it all is to make each trainee an entrepreneur in their own right, providing them a platform to hone their organizational and communication skills. Thus, it is an honour to state that Planit-E is the 'Green Jewel' in the crown of S.T.I.E. Winning the Green title for the Highest Performing Spoke in the 'Go-Green with Tetra Pak' Campaign: This project aimed at sensitizing student-teachers to their role in Environmental Stewardship, transforming the student fraternity into agents of change, adding a creative dimension to the existing eco-friendly practices, alerting society to the threat of environmental degradation and providing a forum for networking between various stakeholders and usher in a Green Evolution. It was based on the RIPPLE MODEL of Social Awareness. The college performed phenomenally well collecting an all-time high of 15,471 cartons in a year. The Save Water - Safe Water Campaign: Taking its green vision and mission a step further, S.T.I.E. collaborated with SOSVA in this initiative wherein student-teachers were first sensitized to the importance of water conservation and thereafter they conducted this project in 5 Mumbai based schools orienting 14,416 school students to concepts such as water crisis and its causes, water scarcity and techniques of water conservation such as rainwater harvesting. Workshop by Trailblazers Foundation Inc. on Climate Change and Sustainability: The college also collaborated with Trailblazers to sensitize our student-teachers to issues of environmental concern through a one day workshop etc. E-module competition: This focused on the theme of Technology covering myriad dimensions such as 'Applications of Technology', 'Rural Health', 'Social Media', 'Sustainable Development', 'Food Technology' and 'Space Technology'. Thus, teaching didn't end at academics but more importantly transcended the boundaries of a classroom by ensuring that students were transformed into responsible future inhabitants of the planet.
