II) Brief Information about the Activity

|                                    |   |
|------------------------------------|---|
| Topic/Subject of the Activity      | M.A.D (Make A Difference) WEEK  |
| Objectives for conducting Activity | 1) To raise awareness among future facilitators about the importance of environmental conservation and sustainable practices. 2) To equip future teachers with sustainable practices, empowering them to make a positive impact on the environment in their future roles as Green Warriors. 3) To motivate participants to take the initiative and develop innovative solutions to address environmental challenges. |
| Methodology                        | On each day of the MAD WEEK, a green assembly was conducted wherein one environmental issue was selected as the highlight of the day.   |

|         |   |
|---------|---|
|         | Following the assembly, each participant was assigned a sustainable task to be completed at home.   |
| Outcome | The participants developed a deep sense of commitment and passion for environmental sustainability. By the end of the MAD week their understanding of the interconnectedness between human activities and the environment was enhanced, and they were empowered with a renewed determination to effect positive change. |
