II Brief Information about the Activity

Topic/Subject of the Activity	Making Inclusion a Way of Life in Education.
Objectives for conducting Activity	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> To make the future teachers sensitive about empathy and how inclusivity can help the students in many ways.
Methodology	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The students were introduced to various common mistakes that the school teacher makes knowingly or unknowingly. They were made aware of the different ways on how they could incorporate inclusivity in the classroom by the language used, welcoming the students, getting to know them, encouraging collaborations etc. Further the students were also briefed upon the mistakes that teachers usually make in school which makes the child demotivated. This was followed by different games and activities where students were tested on what was taught in the workshop.
Outcome	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> The students became aware about the importance of empathy and inclusivity in the classroom and how it could positively affect the students and motivate them.
