II Brief Information about the Activity

Topic/Subject	Independence Day
Objectives for conducting Activity	• To instill patriotism and deepen students' understanding of India's independence. • To encourage active participation through creative and knowledge-based competitions.

	• To promote teamwork, problem-solving, and cultural expression among students. • To strengthen national unity and appreciation for India's freedom fighters.
Methodology	• Conducted a well-planned assembly featuring speeches, cultural performances, and tributes to foster emotional and patriotic engagement. • Organized diverse competitions—quiz, puzzle-solving, singing, bookmark-making, and tricolour platter—to involve students in multiple interactive formats. • Encouraged collaborative participation by engaging internship groups in team-based activities requiring coordination and critical thinking. • Evaluated students' performance through creativity, accuracy, teamwork, and presentation, ensuring a holistic and meaningful learning experience. • STIE library had organised Book and Chats Display on the theme I Love my India
Outcome	• Students developed deeper historical awareness and patriotic values. • Participants enhanced creativity, problem-solving, and teamwork skills. • Students improved confidence through cultural and artistic expression. • The event fostered unity, respect for national symbols, and appreciation for India's freedom struggle
