II Brief Information about the activity

Topic/ Subject of the Activity	Drama and Art in Education workshop
Objectives for conducting Activity	I. To develop an understanding of Indian drama and art. II. To help students appreciate the long history/tradition of drama and art in education. III. To learn how to effectively integrate drama and art into curriculum and promote creative methods of learning.
Methodology	I. The students were taken on an educational field trip to Nalanda Dance Research Centre. The head of the department of dance, Dr. Meenakshi Iyer welcomed the students and introduced the event. The principal, Dr. Uma Rele, too, welcomed the students and spoke about the dance institution. II. Dr. Meenakshi Iyer explained the history and other different aspects of drama and art, with the help of a ppt. She also gave advice to the students with regards to their career. III. Students of the institution performed different styles of classical dances, and the audience had to guess the story behind some of those dances.
Outcome	I. The session helped students attain knowledge about different forms of Indian classical dances and their impact on emotional understanding and well-being. II. It allowed students to appreciate the beauty of drama and art. III. It educated students on how to implement various forms of art into day to day teaching in a way that students learn and progress effectively.
