II. Brief Information about the activity (NAAC criterion Numbers)

Topic	Slogan making competition for creating voter awareness
Objectives for conducting Activity	The purpose of the competition is to create awareness and importance of voting within the students.
Methodology	The competition encouraged students to create slogans that would help people understand the importance of voting. Students learned that voting is a basic right for everyone and to make the future better. To bring their ideas to life, students had access to various art supplies, including paints, markers, and colored pencils. This variety allowed them to express their creativity in different ways. Some students chose to paint colorful slogans that captured attention right away, while others preferred to create hand-drawn designs with illustrations that supported their messages. The competition allowed each student to choose their own style and approach, fostering a fun and imaginative environment. The main purpose of the competition was to create slogans that were not only visually appealing but also conveyed the powerful message that every vote matters.
Outcomes	The competition effectively raised awareness about the importance of voting, with students creating impactful slogans that promoted civic responsibility and the power of each vote.
