II Brief Information about the Activity

Topic/Subject of the Activity	English Grammar Pro- Beginner to Advanced Course
Objectives for conducting Activity	• To strengthen the learners' foundation in the English language by developing their understanding of grammar and the four essential language skills: listening, speaking, reading, and writing. • To enhance the grammatical proficiency and communication skills of the learners, enabling them to communicate more effectively and confidently. • To develop a clear understanding of grammatical concepts and promote the accurate use of spoken and written English. • To enable learners to identify and self-correct grammatical errors while using the English language.
Methodology	The course was designed and delivered using the Four-Quadrant Approach, ensuring a comprehensive and learner-centred learning experience. The course was conducted through Google Classroom and followed an asynchronous mode of learning, allowing learners the flexibility to access and complete the course requirements at a convenient time. All course sessions and modules were compulsory. Learners were required to complete and submit the assignments and quizzes prescribed for each module. A minimum score of 40% in each quiz was required for successful completion of the respective module and to remain eligible for certification. A pre-test and post-test were conducted to assess the learners' knowledge and progress. Learners who secured more than 60% in the final assessment were awarded the course certificate.
Outcome	At the end of the course, the learners were able to: • Recognize and understand the meaning and use of various grammatical structures in both written and spoken English. • Use grammatical structures meaningfully, accurately, and appropriately in oral and written communication. • Demonstrate improved proficiency in the use of English for effective communication. • Identify and self-correct grammatical errors while using the English language. • Apply their knowledge of grammar to improve the overall accuracy and clarity of their spoken and written English.
