II. Brief Information about the Activity

Topic	Educational Visit-St. Francis Institute of Technology (SFIT) Library
Objectives for conducting Activity	● To commemorate Independence Day and develop awareness of India's freedom struggle. ● To familiarize teacher trainees with the library collection on Indian leaders, reformers, history and heritage. ● To promote awareness of the Constitution, democratic values and civic responsibilities as Indian Citizens. ● To encourage reading, self-learning and critical thinking among teacher trainees and to inspire future teachers to integrate Indian history, culture and values into teaching.

Methodology	The library team identified 107 relevant books from the library collection based on the following themes and attractively displayed them. ● Indian Freedom Fighters and Leaders ● Social Reformers of India ● Indian Knowledge Systems ● Indian Constitution, Law and Democracy ● Indian History and Geopolitics ● Nation Building and Contemporary India B. Ed, D. Ed. students and faculty members were encouraged to browse the display and claim books for further reading and issue.
Outcome	● The Incredible India book display successfully commemorated Independence Day by creating awareness among students about India's freedom movement, history, culture, heritage, knowledge traditions and democratic values. ● It encouraged reading, self-learning and greater use of library resources, while inspiring trainees to explore these themes further for their academic and professional development.
