II Brief Information about the Activity

| Topic/Subject | Participation in Nasha Mukti Bharat Abhiyan |
|---|---|
| Objectives for conducting Activity | ◆ Raise students' awareness about the risks and impact of drug addiction.◆ Encourage critical thinking and balanced discussion through a debate format.◆ Build a concrete, personal commitment by having students take the Nasha Mukti pledge.◆ Link the institute's activity with the national Nasha Mukt Bharat Abhiyan for broader engagement.◆ Provide formal recognition of students' commitment through e-certificates from the NMBA portal. |

|---|---|
| Methodology | ◆ Students were divided into two teams (for / against) and debated key points on drug addiction, developing arguments, counterarguments, and presenting in a guided session.◆ After the debate, participants registered on the NMBA website, took the Nasha Mukti ("Drug-Free") pledge, and downloaded their e-certificates — integrating local action with a national campaign. |
| Outcome | ◆ Students developed a stronger understanding of drug addiction and its consequences.◆ Debate improved their public speaking, teamwork, and critical-thinking skills.◆ Taking the pledge solidified a personal and collective commitment to a drug-free lifestyle.◆ Registration and certification via NMBA connected students to a national initiative.◆ The activity empowered future teachers to act as role models in promoting drug-prevention. |
