II Brief Information about the Activity

Topic/Subject of the Activity	Annual Day and Convocation ceremony
Objectives for conducting Activity	● To strengthen the relationship between St. Teresa's Institute of Education and its alumni. ● To apprise the alumni of the milestones, achievements, and developmental initiatives of the institution. ● To encourage alumni participation in enriching the B.Ed. curriculum by sharing their knowledge, expertise, and professional experiences. ● To explore opportunities for alumni to serve as resource persons and mentors for student-teachers. ● To foster institutional linkages and encourage alumni involvement in college events, seminars, and academic activities.
Methodology	● The meeting commenced with a prayer, followed by a review of the minutes of the previous meeting. ● A presentation on the milestones achieved by St. Teresa's Institute of Education was delivered to apprise the alumni of the institution's progress. ● An interactive discussion was held to explore avenues for alumni participation in curriculum enrichment, mentoring, academic activities, and institutional linkages. ● An informal interaction was conducted to encourage the exchange of ideas, suggestions, and feedback, followed by a formal expression of gratitude to the participants.
Outcome	● The alumni were apprised of the milestones and developmental progress of St. Teresa's Institute of Education. ● Alumni expressed their willingness to contribute to the institution's growth through their professional expertise and active participation in academic activities. ● Opportunities were identified for alumni to enrich the B.Ed. curriculum by serving as resource persons and guiding future student-teachers. ● Alumni participation in college events, seminars, and institutional linkage initiatives was encouraged. ● The meeting fostered a sense of belonging, professional association, and shared responsibility among the alumni and the institution.
