Objectives

- To cultivate reading habits and nurture a lifelong love for books.
- To enhance creativity, critical thinking and communication skills.
- To encourage reflection on the themes, values and messages conveyed through books.
- To promote peer learning and strengthen the reading culture among prospective teachers.

Methodology / Summary / Programme Details

The STIE – NDLI Club celebrated Vachan Prerana Din 2026 with the following activities

- A special assembly was conducted to highlight the importance of knowledge through prayer and the screening of two short films, "The Life Story of Dr. A.P.J. Abdul Kalam" and "The Free Library," setting an inspiring tone for the celebration

- Students also explored "The Kalam Corner," a special library book display celebrating his life and vision.

- Activity 1: "If My Book Could Speak…"

  Students personified their chosen books and delivered imaginative oral presentations of up to two minutes, speaking as though they were the books themselves. They creatively conveyed the books' central messages, memorable moments, significant ideas and impact on readers.

- Activity 2: "My Book, My Creative Canvas!"

  Students artistically transformed their A3-size Chart Papers into creative visual interpretations of their selected books. Drawing upon their own critical thinking, imagination and personal perspectives, they expressed the books' central themes, ideas, values and messages through original illustrations, symbols, sketch notes and pictorial representations.

Learning Outcomes: Students

- Celebrated the joy of reading through imaginative expression, artistic interpretation and peer learning.
- Developed the ability to interpret and express ideas through oral presentations and visual art.
- Gave exposure to 36 diverse books enriched students' reading experiences and encouraged entire class to explore new literary horizons, contributing to a vibrant reading culture at STIE.
- Reinforced the value of reading for lifelong learning and professional growth.
